6. Liquidity Damages

6.1. If the seller fails to complete the works within the stipulated time mentioned in the purchase order or fails to deliver the goods or part thereof in accordance with the relevant delivery dates or any time extension thereto as may be granted by the buyer in accordance with the provision of the purchase order, then without prejudice to the buyers other rights and remedies under the purchase order or at law, the seller shall become liable to pay the to the buyer as liquidity damages, not as penalty the following amounts

6.1.1. Where the purchase order specifies delivery of the goods in a single shipment (Shipment means all goods having the same delivery dates), the liquidated damages for any delay in the delivery dates shall be calculated at a rate of one (1) percent of the purchase order price for every week of delay or part thereof beyond the delivery dates specified in the purchase order, subject to a maximum limit of ten (10) percent of the purchase order price.

6.1.2. Where the purchase order specifies the delivery of the goods in more than one shipment, then the liquidated damages for any delay in delivery dates of each shipment shall be calculated as follows

6.1.2.1. All the shipments except the last shipment: two(2) percent of the valid purchase order corresponding to the delayed shipment for every weeks of the delay or part thereof

6.1.2.2. Last Shipment: Two(2) percent of the valid purchase order corresponding to the last shipments plus one(1) percent of the purchase order price for every week of the delay or part thereof for the last shipment

6.1.2.3. The maximum liquidated damages payable by the seller to the buyer as per above shall be limited to ten(10) percent of the purchase order price

6.1.3. All amounts of liquidated damages for which the seller may become liable under the purchase order pursuant to this article (liquidity damages) are agreed by the parties to be a genuine pre-estimate of the losses which shall be sustained by the buyer in the event the seller fails to comply with the specific requirements in the Purchase Order

6.1.4. The payment of liquidated damages shall not relieve the seller from his obligations to diligently supply the goods or from any other of his obligations and liabilities under the purchase order. The above provisions are also without prejudice to any other rights the buyer may have in accordance with any other provisions of the purchase order

7. Compliance

7.1. If the goods delivered fail to satisfy the provisions of the Purchase order, Loops Automation/ Buyer may demand that the Supplier deliver the missing goods, or repair or replace the goods, within a reasonable period to be specified by Loops Automation. Any and all costs related and/or involved shall be at the Supplier's expense.

7.2. In the event of the Supplier still failing to render the service in question within the period referred to, Loops Automation shall be entitled to have the delivery, repair or replacement carried out by a third party, and all the charges will be debited to the supplier account, without seeking prior court intervention

8. Warrantee and Guarantee

8.1. In addition to the sellers warranties and guarantees for the goods/materials as expressly set out or implied in the purchase order, the seller warrants and guarantees all works that he furnishes or performs under the purchase order for incorporation in the goods and that the goods shall be
